

Open VACC Board Positions: Qualifications and Responsibilities

Director

Responsibilities:

1. Attends all Board Meetings and conference calls.
2. Represents and promotes VACC to professional, industry, and community groups.
3. Performs other duties as directed by the President or Board of Directors.

Overall Responsibilities of the VACC Board of Directors

1. Determine the organization's mission and strategic direction.
2. Identify emerging trends in the specialty.
3. Design the organization's future through continuous strategic thinking and planning.
4. Prepare and revise the strategic plan of the organization; formulates organizational strategies; monitors and evaluates execution of the strategic plan.
5. Approve implementation plans and budget.
6. Provide proper financial oversight.
7. Ensure adequate funding.
8. Approve all policies of the organization.
9. Determine, monitor, and strengthen the organization's programs and services.
10. Select, support and assess the performance of the Executive Director.
11. Perform self-assessment of the Board's performance.
12. Ensure legal and ethical integrity and maintains accountability.
13. Enhance the organization's public standing.